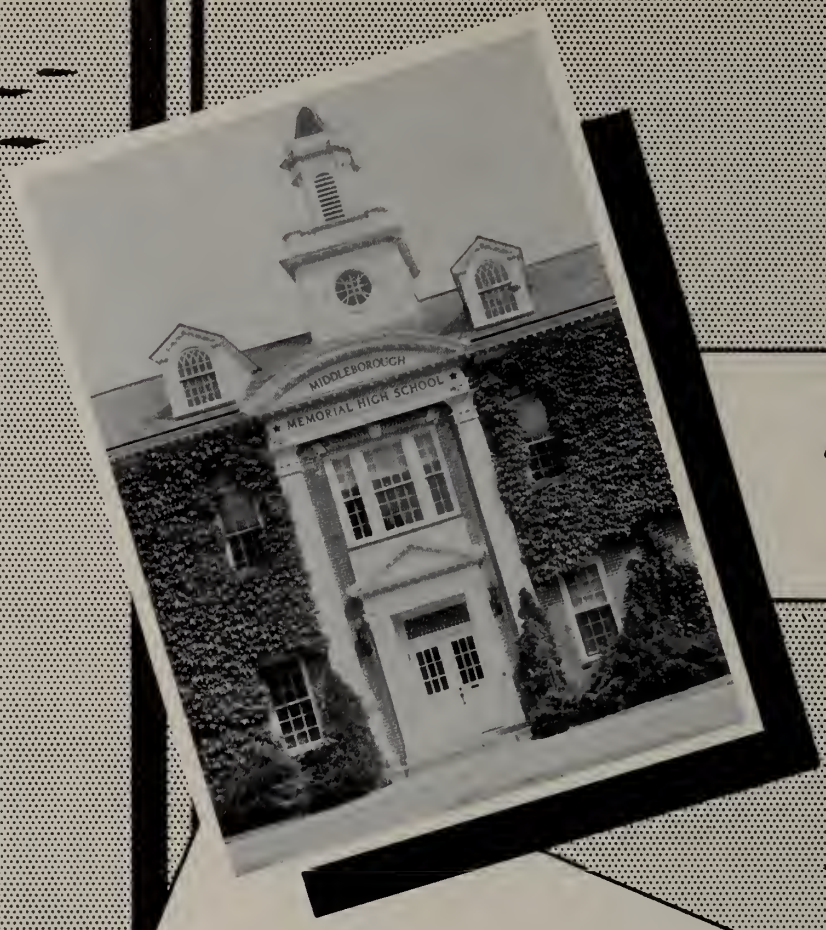
Dedication

Mr. Churchill:

To express our thanks for the many times you have been patient, considerate, and understanding, we the class of 1955 dedicate to you our yearbook.

By many hours of hard work, you have showed us you were not only a teacher, but also a friend. For these and all your other traits, we chose you for our dedication.



Foreword

In days to come we hope this book will grow more and more in value. Perhaps many years from now you will leaf through its pages and recall various experiences in high school. We also hope that it will bind you closer to your present friends, that they may not be forgotten later on.

Now we present to you students and faculty of Memorial High, your 1955 yearbook—The Memorialite.

THE STAFF

You've Got a Secret

Through the past four years you have overcome many an obstacle in your efforts to earn a diploma. You have laid the foundation for a long and successful future. The trials and tribulations of the years past are small and infinitesimal compared to the problems of the future. You have learned the responsibilities of a citizen. Practice what you have learned so that the knowledge and fine habits you have acquired are put to good use.

Time alone can count your contributions to society. With your abilities they should be many. You have the keys to the future. Use them well to unlock the secret of a successful life. Strive ever upward and onward and I'm sure that you will be future leaders of the community, the state, and the country—yes even the world.

Senior Class History

In September, 1951, an old broken down steam engine puffed into the M.H.S. Depot and left one hundred and forty of its passengers standing a little frightened and cold on the platform. From the outside the green young hopefuls looked into the four story building at a group of happy, experienced professionals. Slowly they made their way inside the warm first floor of the building and soon found their place in this very different world.

With capable Barry Weaver as President assisted by William Levesque, Vice President; Beverly Belrose, Secretary; and Joan Jefferson, Treasurer; we started to gain in experience as well as intelligence. We gained respect quickly by adding something new —a class council. We started our climb up the ladder by having a "Get Acquainted Social" for the incoming freshmen.

Before we knew it, the porters had taken our luggage and comfortably lodged us on the second floor. We were Sophomores! The controls of the class were handed to William Levesque, President; Barry Weaver, Vice President; Joan Jefferson, Secretary; and Francis Medeiros, Treasurer.

Our talents began to really shine this year when Karin Beuthner and Catherine Horan won the Girls' League interclass talent show. Although we were a busy class, we always had time for fun. We ended up our Sophomore year with a terrific "Come As You Are" dance on May 8. Everyone had a wonderful time and looked forward to future dances.

Crash! One of the eager Juniors just fell up the stairs on the way to our new third floor berth. Now we were finally nearing the top and it felt pretty good. The class leadership was again handed to Barry Weaver, President; William Levesque, Vice President; Joan Jefferson, Secretary; and our new Treasurer, Patricia Hearn.

Before we knew it, we were getting our class rings and having our Junior Prom. The decoration, publicity, and refreshment committees, assisted ably by the class officers and our capable faculty advisor, Miss O'Neil, planned a very successful and enjoyable Prom.

We made it! No more stairs! We were now using the elevator which took us swiftly to the fourth floor. For three years we had been holding our own, but we were sure this was our year. We now had thirteen members in the Silver "M" Society. The members were Lester Andrews, Florence Butler, Robert Estes, Patricia Hearn, Joan Jefferson, Priscilla Leggee, Larry McDonald, Jeanne Madden, Francis Medeiros, David Mello, Kenneth Mortimer, Mary Sylvia, and Barry Weaver. Scholastically, we had twenty-four members in the Pro Merito Society.

Our athletic stars who had been developing really began to shine this year. William Levesque, Lawrence McDonald, our football co-captains, Lester Andrews, and Terence Sparrow really gave forth with all their ability. Who said that "women are the weaker sex?" Our class had some of the most hard-working, able girl athletes ever to enter school. They included Carolyn Gravelin, Nancy Shurtleff, Jane Freitas, Gerel Washburn, and Joan Jefferson. Not only were our girls outstanding in athletics, but they also excelled in dramatics. Under the able direction of Miss Lewis nine girls presented the play "This Little Hand." Congratulations, you were swell!

Our cheerleading squad consisted of four very attractive young girls: Carol Rice, Jane Waite, Vivian Petrowski, and Sandra Nay. The boys are not to be forgotten, however, since they played an important part in all our activities. The Future Farmers of America will be remembered as the boys who got out early and graduated late.

Our band, orchestra, and choir certainly require recognition since they are, to our way of thinking, the best you could find anywhere. The Senior year was enjoyed by all, and we will never forget those memorable days.

Well, the conductor's calling "All aboard" and everyone is boarding the Super-Chief, so we'd better say, "It was swell being here," and grab the caboose as our train speeds down the tracks of life.

Class Prophecy

Vote for Barry Weaver, presidential candidate for 1965!

Waiting at campaign headquarters in his home town of Middleboro, which is now a thriving metropolis, Barry decides to take a stroll. As he leaves headquarters he runs into Ken Mortimer, his campaign manager; so they walk together. On the outskirts of town they see their old pals, Larry and Jane, with their three children, on their way to the world-renowned Matheson Theater, where Karin Beuthner is giving a command performance. After a moment's pause Ken and Barry continue on their way.

The fleet's in! Here come Griffith, DeLongchamps, Durfee, and Bowland, with Bob Norris and Dave Wall, the Shore Patrol, watching every move they make.

After another pause Ken and Barry come to the center of town. Here they meet "The Art" at Medeiros' Department Store. Next, they come to the famous Beauty Salon of Bowland and Sullivan where they see Arlene Herbert giving that well-known Powers model, Carol Ann Ducey, a facial. Here's the YWCA where Ken and Barry find Carolyn Gravelin teaching Grace and Florence Butler the art of calisthenics. After leaving the YWCA, Barry and Ken stop at Levesque's News Agency, where they purchase the Abele Daily News, run by that well-known columnist Arthur (printer's ink) Abele. The headlines read, "Jeanne Madden Named State's Prosecutor in the Notorious Johnson-Jenkins Murder Case." The case was solved when Pat Washburn, head telephone operator, overheard threatening telephone conversations between the two men. In the fashion column they find that well-known fashion designer, Pollyann Keedwell, has just released a fantastic new line of clothes.

After leaving Levesque's News Agency, Barry and Ken stop in at Danielson's Lounge where they meet Norman Chisholm, Armand Boileau, George Jackson, and Arthur Mott. No room for Perry! (It's a small lounge.)

Barry and Ken decide not to loiter around the lounge, so they continue down the street. Arriving at Carey's Dry Cleaning establishment, they find David Mello fixing the steam pipes. Out in the backroom they can hear Ozzie Washburn having trouble with the cleaning press.

Looking out the window, Barry and Ken see Mary Sylvia on her way to work at St. Luke's Hospital. After talking to Mary, they decide to take a walk to the hospital. Upon arriving there, they see Dot Powers and Nancy Wright slaving away in the office. As they don't know much about hospitals, Cathy Horan, the social worker, offers to take them on a tour. They see Gerel Washburn and Joan Jefferson taking X-Rays of Debbie Brown's broken ribs. Traveling to the men's ward, they find Lester Andrews with a broken leg, Harold Logan with a broken shoulder, and Paul Blackman with a bullet through his chest resulting from the National Guard training period. The head doctor, Terry Sparrow, is driving the poor nurses, Shirley Anderson, Sandy Nay, Carol Rice, Elvira Barboza, and Bea Barrows, to their graves. Oh! Oh! here comes Patience Wood, X-Ray Technician.

Upon leaving the hospital, Barry and Ken decide to stop at Bob Sylvia's restaurant for a snack. As they sit down, the friendly waitress, Donna Dextraze, takes their orders. Nancy Shurtleff, Mary Stanley, and Marie Lindfors are running busily around, with John Garafolo and Sam Ryder as bus boys cleaning up after the girls. As Ken and Barry leave, they are very much surprised to see Janice Leonard as cashier.

When they reach the outdoors, they find Bruce Atwood with a new "Chevy" from his garage for them to take a ride in. Gene Newton drives them around the countryside. Just smell that fresh air! Ugh! Look at this! The farmers, James Rogers, George Chace, Roland Boardman, Nelson Staples, Tom Peak, and Brad Cushman, are getting together for the harvest. Here comes Jerry Silvia. Look at the time! Four o'clock. The returns are in; so Barry and Ken hurry back to campaign headquarters, where they are met by a greeting committee comprised of Charles Dean, Irene Pike, and Roger Clark. Barry is the center of attraction as a parade heads for Center Street led by Police Chief Ed Moranville, along with Sonny Fawcett, Bob Estes, and Bill Smith. The famous Middleboro Band is next in line led by Viv Petraowski, followed by Joyce Plaskawiski, Ruth Shaw, and Gerry Hadsell. The representatives of the town are Isabell Fernandes, Carol Forbes, Joyce Gifford, Charles Sylvia, Jane Linton, Betty MacNeil, Nancy Robinson, Dick Parmenter, Hal Montround, Marg McGreal and Sheila MacLeod! The first lady mayor is the history of Middleboro, Pat Hearn, gives Barry a royal send-off, and as he boards the plane, he is greeted by Gerry Allan, Joan Chestnut, Anne Bowland, Patti Washburn, Bruce Atwood, Richard Matheson and Sandra Sullivan.

Barry is headed for the White House.

Class of 1956

Junior Class Officers

Junior Class History

It was in May of 1952 that the class of '56 first made their appearance at M.H.S. at a Freshman "Get-Acquainted Social." In September of that same year we began to come regularly and elected John Perry, Lee Bissonnette, Marilyn Boucher, and Margaret Powers respectively as our President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary to lead us in our activities.

Entering our Sophomore year, we elected as President, Fred Underhill; Vice President, Ronald Paiva; Treasurer, Sara Leonard; and Secretary, Jane Correia. One of the main events of this year was the annual Sophomore Dance staged at Christmas time. It was a great success. Also, during our Sophomore year we started something entirely new by collecting dues each week for our Senior Class Trip. At the close of school we had a very enjoyable Sophomore Class Trip at College Pond.

As Juniors we selected Harold Fasulo for our President; Fred Underhill, Vice President; Sara Leonard, Treasurer; and Marilyn Bernier, Secretary. Our highlight this year was the Junior Prom, a great event.

During our three years at M.H.S. we have had outstanding citizens. Margaret Powers, Harold Fasulo, Sara Leonard, Virginia Huntley, Edwin Tompkiewicz, and Fred Underhill represent the rest of the class in the Silver "M" Society. Scholastically, we held our own by having thirty-three class members initiated into the Pro Merito Society. Some of our more athletic students stood out on the baseball, basketball, football, hockey and track teams.

In our remaining year at M.H.S. we hope to add a great deal to this list of accomplishments.

GRACE SAMPSON

Sophomore Class Officers

Sophomore Class History

The unequaled class of 1957 proudly presents its history to date . . .

We entered high school as excited freshmen in September of last year. For our class officers we elected Roberta Caswell, President; Irving Murphy, Vice President; Carolyn Marshall, Secretary; David Sopa, Treasurer. From our class we elected Frances and Frank Petkunas to the Silver "M" Society.

At the close of our Freshman year we invited the eighth grade to a joint social to get acquainted with us.

For our Sophomore Class officers we elected as President, William Wheeler; Vice President, Frank Petkunas; Secretary, Frances Petkunas; and Treasurer, Bill Rogers.

Our main project this year was the Christmas social, which was a huge success.

Those elected to Silver "M" by a class ballot were William Wheeler and Manuel Barboza.

This year we had many boys active in football and showing great promise for the coming season. In girls' sports we had six girls playing on the Junior Varsity Basketball Team.

Thus we have come to the end of our Sophomore year at M.H.S. and are looking forward to the activities of our Junior year.

MARILYN PERKINS

Class of 1958

Freshman Class Officers

Freshman Class History

As members of the class of 1958 we had our first experience in M.H.S. in May, 1954, when we attended the annual "Get-Acquainted Social" planned for us by the Class of '57. It was enjoyed by all, and we looked forward to our first day in high school.

At our first class meeting in October we had nominations for class officers. Later, by ballot, John McDonald was elected President; John Logan, Vice President; Martha Nay, Secretary; and Glenn Griffith, Treasurer. Under these capable leaders we can be sure of a successful year.

We had an undefeated football squad for the first time in the school's history. Mr. Driscoll did an excellent job as coach. The basketball team, under the direction of Mr. Masi, won their five scheduled games. The cheerleaders gave support to the boys and aided them in their wins. The cheerleaders were Captain Diana Williams, Peggy Reynolds, Judy Houlihan, Judy Wright, Katy Hicks, and Florine Burke. Miss Bartlett had a large number of girls out for both basketball and hockey.

Elaine Battis and John McDonald were elected as outstanding citizens of the class and are the Freshman members of the Silver "M" Society. Congratulations to you both!

Finally, we wish to extend our deepest gratitude to all the members of the faculty, especially Mr. Kiame, our class advisor. They have helped us to have a happy and successful beginning in high school.
